SPECIAL CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

The defendant shall not enter any establishment where alcohol is the primary commodity for sale.

The defendant shall participate as instructed by the U.S. Probation Officer in a program approved by the probation office for treatment of narcotic addiction, drug dependency, or substance abuse, which may include testing to determine if defendant has reverted to the use of drugs or alcohol. The defendant shall also abstain from the use of alcohol and/or other intoxicants during the term of supervision. Defendant must contribute towards the cost of any programs, to the extent defendant is financially able to do so, as determined by the U.S. Probation Officer.

The defendant shall submit his/her person, residence, office, safety deposit box, storage unit, property, or vehicle to a search, conducted by a U.S. Probation Officer or any other law enforcement officer, at a reasonable time and in a reasonable manner, based upon reasonable suspicion of contraband or evidence of a violation of a condition of supervision. Failure to submit to a search may be grounds for revocation; the defendant shall notify any other residents that the premises may be subject to searches pursuant to this condition.

The defendant shall participate as directed in a mental health program approved by the United States Probation Office. The defendant must contribute towards the cost of any programs, to the extent the defendant is financially able to do so, as determined by the U.S. Probation Officer.

The defendant shall reside in and satisfactorily participate in a Residential Reentry Center program as a condition of supervision for up to 180 days or until discharged by the Program Manager with the approval of the U.S. Probation Officer. Subsistence shall be waived. The defendant shall remain in custody until arrangements can be made by the USPO for direct placement in a Residential Reentry Center. Custody shall not exceed 14 days beyond the date of the judgment unless extended by the Court.

The defendant shall provide his or her probation officer with access to any requested financial information including authorization to conduct credit checks and obtain copies of the defendant's Federal Income Tax Returns.
